
Title: Alice In Wonderland

Author: Lewis Carroll

Alice saw a peculiar white rabbit one day. It was looking at its pocket watch and worrying about how late it was. Alice chased it down a rabbit hole, and fell a very long way. She found herself in a strange land. She went to a tea party there, with a mad hatter and a dormouse. She also met a strange caterpillar, and a cat that could vanish, with its grin disappearing last. The queen of hearts yelled 'Off with her head!' and her guards ran up to grab Alice - but then she awakened, and realized it had all been a dream.
